

Sinclair Everywhere

Start Here ▾

Welcome Laurel Painter!

How to Get Started

- Click on the Content tab on the navigation bar near the top of the screen.

Course Announcements ▾

Calendar ▾

Thursday, May 31, 2018

Upcoming events ▾

There are no events to display.

Lesson 4 - Converse with a Prospective Student ▾

After reading the materials located in all the modules at left, you are ready to engage in a simulated conversation with a prospective student. Click on the link "Converse with a Prospective Student" to converse with Maggie, a fictional character who is a high school junior. You will have an unlimited amount of time with the simulated conversation, however, it should take you no more than 30 minutes. You have an unlimited number of submission attempts, as well.

0 % 0 of 1 topics complete

Converse with a Prospective Student ▾

Quiz

Sinclair Everywhere Test

Laurel Painter, ext. 4190

Learning Technology Support

Certification Multiple Choice Test, "Converse with a Prospective Student"

FAST FACTS SECTION

Information

Maggie is a high school junior visiting her grandmother in Dayton. She takes time to visit a Sinclair Everywhere event and approaches you with some questions, engaging in a conversation. Maggie's voice is in italics, yours is in regular font. Follow the conversation and choose the best answer for each question or prompt. There are a total of 16 questions/prompts with multiple choice answers.

Hi. So this is Sinclair?

Yes, my name is _____. I've been an employee at Sinclair for _____ months/years. What's your name?

Maggie.

Hi, Maggie, nice to meet you.

You too.

Do you live in Dayton?

No, I'm from Eaton. I'm just visiting my grandmother. She says that Sinclair has been around forever.

Question 1 (1 point)

Sinclair has been around for a while. Our institution _____ began as the YMCA Evening School in 1887.

_____ began as the YMCA Evening School in 1901.

_____ began as the YMCA Evening School in 1925.

_____ began as the YMCA Evening School in 1956.

Question 2 (1 point)

We strive to “find the need and endeavor to meet it,” as quoted by our founder, David A. Sinclair which means

Provide training to the regional population so they are employable to regional industries and elsewhere.

Provide directions for people lost in Dayton traffic.

Provide endeavors for residents in the region.

Provide needs for residents in the region.

Question 3 (1 point)

Sinclair approaches this mission through four core strategies:

Be accessible, Be sustainable, Be community-aligned, Provide quality and innovation.

Be accessible, Be ready, Be open, Provide quality and innovation.

Be sustainable, Be lively, Be cool, Provide quality and innovation.

Be community-aligned, Be fit, Be fuddled, Provide quality and innovation.

Question 4 (1 point)

Accessible? Sustainable? Like, how?

One way that Sinclair is accessible is through its tuition, currently at $99.03 per credit hour. This is the lowest in the state for residents of Montgomery County, and 31% below the average for Ohio community colleges.

20% below the average for Ohio community colleges.

13% below the average for Ohio community colleges.

8% below the average for Ohio community colleges.